

Voluntary
Framework of Accountability

The VFA is the principle accountability framework for community colleges with measures defined to encompass the full breadth of the community college mission and the diversity of students' goals and educational experiences. The mission-appropriate measures determine how well community colleges are serving students; provide colleges the ability to identify problems and set goals for institutional improvement; and be properly accountable to stakeholders.

ABE Measures

These ABE measures determine first which students reached a standard level of high school equivalency (or completed adult basic education) at the college. Of those students that achieved an adult basic education, the measures determine what percentage of these students continued with their education or gained employment with a wage above the minimum wage, within one year of exiting the college.
