The income reported on your 2021-2022 FAFSA seems too low to meet basic living expenses. Although this may be due to the valid exclusion of certain types of income from the FAFSA, federal law states that we have the right to confirm the information that was submitted before offering and/or disbursing federal student aid. This worksheet may be requested in addition to other verification forms required by the U.S. Department of Education. PLEASE NOTE – Your eligibility for financial aid cannot be determined until the verification process is complete.

INSTRUCTIONS: You, and a parent whose information was reported on the FAFSA, should complete this worksheet using blue or black ink, attach any required documentation, sign, and submit the completed package to the WCC Financial Aid Office. IMPORTANT: If your parent was married/remarried on the day you signed and submitted the FAFSA, you are required to include information for each parent and/or stepparent.

The Financial Aid Office will compare the information reported on the FAFSA for you and your parent(s) with the information provided on this worksheet and any other required documentation. If there are any discrepancies between the information reported on your FAFSA and the documents submitted to our office, your signature on this form authorizes our office to make the appropriate corrections to your FAFSA.
