THE PHILOSOPHY AND GOALS OF THE WAYNE COMMUNITY COLLEGE DENTAL HYGIENE PROGRAM

The philosophy of the Wayne Community College Dental Hygiene Program

The philosophy of the Wayne Community College Dental Hygiene program is to provide a strong academic and practical education in dental hygiene that will foster a desire to continue personal growth and maintain professional competence through life-long learning.

The goals of the Wayne Community College Dental Hygiene Program

1. To prepare the student to function as a member of the dental team and perform patient education, assessment and treatment functions as designated by the Dental Laws of North Carolina.
2. To prepare the student to pass the Dental Hygiene National Board Examination.
3. To prepare the student to pass a regional clinical exam and become licensed to practice dental hygiene.
4. To help meet the need for dental hygienists in North Carolina.

Student Success and Retention

Student retention and success are a priority at Wayne Community College. Obstacles to success may include the academic rigor of the program, extracurricular demands or dissatisfaction with your choice of this career path. Job shadowing should be strongly considered so that you are keenly aware of the professional responsibilities and duties associated with your career choice. Extracurricular demands such as full time work schedules may also need to be reduced in order to allow the necessary study time required to be successful. A good support system is also important if you are involved in other extracurricular demands such as providing care for children or elders.

DENTAL HYGIENE PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of the Dental Hygiene program, the student will be able to:

1. Perform assessments and dental prophylaxis on patients with differing levels of dental health at increasingly higher levels of competency with proper infection control.
2. Perform dental radiographic procedures including bitewings, full-mouth series, and panoramic views on the DXTR simulator and patients with proper infection control.
3. Assess, plan, implement and evaluate the appropriate dental health prevention and/or education services to diverse patients and groups.
4. Perform dental clinical/office support duties.
5. Maintain required medical/legal documentation in accordance with the North Carolina Dental Practice Act.
6. Demonstrate professionalism with patients, faculty, peers, community organizations and dental associations.

Revised 02/23/11

PHYSICAL AND COGNITIVE EXPECTATIONS OF A STUDENT DENTAL HYGIENIST

Dental Hygiene (DH) is a practice discipline with cognitive, sensory, affective and psychomotor performance requirements. For the purposes of DH program compliance with the 1990 Americans with Disability Act, a qualified individual with a disability is one who with or without reasonable accommodation or modification, meets the eligibility requirements for participation in the DH program.

Admission to the DH program is not based on these standards. Rather, the standards should be used to assist each student in determining whether accommodations or modifications are necessary. Standards provide an objective measure upon which a student and the advisor base informed decisions regarding whether a student is “qualified” to meet the requirements. It is the responsibility of the applicant to read the technical standards carefully and to ask for clarification of any standard that is not understood.

If a student believes that he or she cannot meet one or more of the standards without accommodations or modifications, the dental faculty will determine on an individual basis, whether or not the necessary accommodations or modifications can be made in a reasonable manner. Both instructors and students must evaluate the standards continually throughout the program.

PHYSICAL AND EMOTIONAL STANDARDS

Dental Hygiene (DH) students should possess and be able to demonstrate the following:

- 1. Critical Thinking: critical thinking ability sufficient for clinical judgment. For example, student must be able to identify cause-effect relationships in clinical situation; collect and analyze clinical and radiographic data to aid in problem solving and participate in the development of dental treatment plans.
- 2. Interpersonal Skills: interpersonal abilities sufficient to interact with individuals, families, groups, etc., from a variety of social, emotional, cultural and intellectual backgrounds. For example, student shall establish rapport with clients/patients and dental team members.
- 3. Communication Skills: communication abilities sufficient for interaction with others in verbal and written form. For example, explain treatment procedures, initiate preventative oral health teaching, document and interpret treatment rendered and patient/client responses.
- 4. Mobility: physical abilities sufficient to move from room to room and maneuver in small spaces, stand and walk for extensive periods of time. For example, moving from room to room in a clinic and laboratory areas.
- 5. Motor Skills: gross and fine motor abilities sufficient to provide safe and effective care. For example, calibrate and use equipment, document care, position and move patients/clients, detection of calculus and other oral conditions and perform expanded function dental procedures as allowed by applicable laws.
- 6. Hearing: auditory ability sufficient to monitor and assess health needs and communicate with patients and other members of the oral health care team.
- 7. Visual: visual ability sufficient for observation and assessment necessary in dental care. For example, observe patient/client responses, observe tissue color and consistency and visually detect stains and deposits.

8. Tactile: tactile ability sufficient for assessment. For example, perform functions of dental examination and/or those related to treatment procedures.
9. Weight-Bearing: ability to lift and manipulate/move 45-50 pounds daily. For example, position patients/clients and move equipment.
10. Cognitive Abilities: ability to be oriented to time, place and person; organize responsibilities and decisions. For example, student shall assess client/patient complaints and oral conditions, provide patient care and implement appropriate treatment plans.

Students infected with a communicable disease have the responsibility of reporting this fact to the Associate Vice President of Academic and Student Services or the Vice President of Continuing Education, as appropriate.

Communicable disease is an illness resulting from an infectious agent or its toxic products being transmitted directly or indirectly to a person from an infected person or animal through the agency of an intermediate animal, host, or vector, or through the inanimate environment. [N.C.G.S. 130A-2(1c)] Communicable Disease shall include, but is not limited to: Chickenpox, influenza, Infectious Mononucleosis, Conjunctivitis, Hepatitis A, B & D, Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS), Aids-related complex (ARC), positive HIV antibody status, Influenza, Measles, Meningitis, Tuberculosis, Whooping Cough, and sexually transmitted diseases.(N.C.G.S. 130A)

Persons who are infected with a communicable disease are expected to seek expert medical advice and are encouraged to advise local health authorities. Local health authorities should offer counseling to these persons about measures that can be taken to prevent the spread of infection and to protect their own health.

Persons who know, or have a reasonable basis for believing, that they are infected with a communicable disease have an ethical and legal obligation to behave in accordance with such knowledge to protect themselves and others. Medical information relating to the communicable disease of a student or employee will be disclosed to responsible college officials only on a strictly limited need-to-know basis. No person, group, agency, insurer, employer, or institution should be provided any medical information without the prior specific written consent of a student unless required by state and/or federal law. Furthermore, all medical information relating to the communicable diseases of students and employees will be kept confidential, according to state and federal law, including the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act.

If a student reports a communicable disease condition, the student may be excluded from the institution until an appropriate evaluation of the student's medical condition can be made. The evaluation may be made by a physician or a health department official and testing may be required if appropriate. Students in any Allied Health program may have additional requirements, as specified in each program's student handbook; therefore, these students should report all suspected communicable diseases.

The final determination of student's ability to remain in school will be made by the Vice President or Associate Vice President based upon professional medical evaluation results and recommendations. If a student is found to have a communicable disease, then the attendance of the student on campus or at any College activity will be prohibited until a satisfactory letter or certificate is obtained from one or more licensed physicians or public health officials stating that the student is not a health risk to employees and other students at the College.

The College's Biohazard Control Plan defines guidelines that will be followed in the event of an accidental exposure to bodily fluids or biohazards. Any such exposure should be reported immediately to the responsible faculty or staff person associated with the WCC activity involving such exposure and to the Student Activities Coordinator and an incident report must be completed.
