Permalink "Fix" for Remote Use of Erwin Library Resources (CQ Researcher)

I. Permalinks, labeled in some databases as Persistent Links or Document URLs, are links to individual journal titles, journal articles, ebooks, or streaming videos, which can be used later to guarantee reaching that resource again without having to search the database again.

II. Permalinks may be copied or emailed to yourself from the page on which the journal article, ebook, or streaming video is displayed, and then pasted into any sort of document, discussion board or email for later access.

III. If you Copy a Permalink from an Erwin Library database, or Email it to yourself or your instructor, and, when you or your recipient are using a computer outside the library, that link doesn't work, you may need to add a proxy prefix to the Permalink to complete it, so you will be directed to a prompt page to login as a remote user with your Erwin Library barcode number.

IV. One database that poses this problem, though with an easy fix, is CQ Researcher.

V. To create a complete Permalink using the Document URL emailed or copied from this resource:

  A. First, Copy and Paste into another open file (preferably in Notepad to prevent any format "contamination") the Erwin Library proxy prefix: https://waynecc.idm.oclc.org/login?url=

  B. Then, Copy your Document URL from the citation area at the end of the article and Paste it right after the prefix to form the complete Permalink which you can Save to use later to access the article or ebook again, as in the following examples:

Document URL from CQ Researcher is: http://library.cqpress.com/cqresearcher/cqresrre2017021700

Our Erwin Library proxy prefix is always: https://waynecc.idm.oclc.org/login?url=

Finally, the complete Permalink that you will want to save to use later is a combination of the two segments listed above:

  https://waynecc.idm.oclc.org/login?url=http://library.cqpress.com/cqresearcher/cqresrre2017021700
