NCLEX-RN® Practice Exam 1

Before you begin your test, it's very important to take a few minutes to review these instructions to be sure you get the most from your online testing experience.

Make sure you understand the nature of the Test, then Choose Your Test Mode, and click the Start Test button to begin it About This Test

This online practice exam has been designed to test your understanding of the content featured on the National Council Licensure Examination for Registered Nurses (NCLEX-RN Examination), which you must pass to become a registered nurse. Taking this practice exam will allow you to become familiar with the format in which the official exam is administered, thus enabling you to perform at your best.

The official NCLEX-RN exam is computer adaptive, which means that all test candidates will answer a different number of test questions (items) depending on the candidate's ability level and the types of items he or she answers correctly and incorrectly. During the allotted six-hour time period, all candidates must answer a minimum of 75 items, and may answer a maximum of 265 items. This LearningExpress practice exam contains 165 items, which should be completed in a four-hour time period.
