

WCC Single Search Basics: Find, Permalink and Cite Scholarly Articles

Example: Find scholarly articles on the topic “mark twain” using a search of the relevant resources in the WCC Single Search discovery service, copy each article permalink, and retrieve each appropriate article citation:

1. Access the Erwin Library website at <https://www.waynecc.edu/library/>

The image shows a screenshot of the Erwin Library website. At the top left, there is a red square with the text "Erwin Library". Below this is a navigation menu with links: Home, All Library Users, Faculty Users, Distance Education Users, WCC Single Search, Online Public Access Catalog (OPAC), Interlibrary Loan (ILL), WCC Historical Archives, and Contacts. The main content area features a "Welcome to the Clyde A. Erwin, Jr. Library" message and a description of the library's collections and services. Below the text, there are two search tabs: "Single Search" and "Publication Title Search". The "Single Search" tab is selected. Below the tabs is a search box labeled "WCC Single Search" containing the text "mark twain" and a "Search" button. Below the search box are three radio buttons: "Keyword" (selected), "Title", and "Author". To the right of the search box, there is a callout box with the text: "Click the Single Search tab and enter your search word or words into the WCC Single Search box, click the Keyword radio button, and finally, the Search button to begin your search".

2. Click the Single Search tab if the homepage has not already defaulted to this search area
3. Into the WCC Single Search box under the Single Search tab enter the search word, or string of words, for the topic search you wish to conduct, using no punctuation or extra words
4. Click the Search button beside the WCC Single Search box

5. After clicking on the WCC Single Search button, if you are a remote user of the Erwin Library online resources (that is, a person using any computer outside of the Erwin Library's workstations) at the Remote Location Database Access prompt page:
  - a. Enter your complete Erwin Library patron barcode number (Using all fourteen digits on the barcode sticker with no spaces between any of the numbers) into the Login box
  - b. Click the Login button

6. At the Search Results page, if you want to retrieve only full-text, scholarly journal articles, under the Refine Results heading on the left of the screen use the Limit To options:
  - a. Click inside the Full Text checkbox to eliminate abstract-only items in the list

- b. Allow the automatic Update function to produce a revised Result list
- c. And/Or, click inside the Scholarly/Peer Reviewed checkbox to eliminate all non-peer-reviewed items in the list
- d. Allow the automatic Update function to produce a revised Result list
- c. And/Or, under the Source Type header click inside the Academic Journals checkbox to eliminate other resource formats, such as ebooks or videos, from your Results List (This also eliminates Newspaper or popular Magazine articles from your search and produces a Results List that is nearly identical to one generated when choosing the Scholarly/Peer Reviewed option)
- d. Allow the automatic Update function to produce a revised Result list
- e. Choose an item from the list and click the PDF Full Text link to open and view an item's full text as it was originally published in paper:

- i. To retrieve the article permalink:
  1. Locate and click on the Link icon ("∞" infinity sign) in the area to the right of the article full text window to open a Permalink box above the article full text window
  2. Position your cursor inside the Permalink box, right click your mouse, and choose Select All from the menu box
  3. Right click again inside the Permalink box where the entire URL is now highlighted, and choose Copy from the menu box

4. Paste this Permalink into another document or assignment, to use later to access the article directly

FALL 2015 MARK TWAIN JOURNAL 83

Scholarly article signals: published quarterly or monthly, not daily or weekly; titles often include "Journal," "Review" or "Quarterly"; includes Notes, Endnotes, Works Cited or Bibliographies

Notes

- 1 Another friend of Twain's—his closest friend in Connecticut—was Joseph Twichell, about whom Steve Courtney has written two books: The Civil War Letters of Joseph Hopkins Twichell (2006), and Joseph Hopkins Twichell: The Life and Times of Mark Twain's Closest Friend (2010). Both are published by the University of Georgia Press. The Mark Twain Journal acknowledges the generosity and cooperation of Steve Courtney of the Mark Twain House in supplying information and images of Clemens, Twichell, Farmington Avenue, and Nook Farm homes.
- 2 Adapted from H. Cohn and H. Gee, "No, No, No, No!": Three Sons of Connecticut Who Opposed the Chinese Exclusion Acts," Connecticut Public Interest Law Journal (2003).
- 3 Hawley's papers are in the Library of Congress. An entry of his diary of Wednesday, March 1, 1854 states: "Poor Debtor Hearing—Jail 10 a.m. with Judge Phelps (D.W. Pardee)."
- 4 Nook Farm was a subdivision in Hartford laid out by John Hooker, who was married to a Beecher, and Francis Gillette. See K. Andrews, Nook Farm: Mark Twain's Hartford

- ii. Note: The title of the publication includes Journal, (other titles clues are Review or Quarterly and it is published quarterly (i.e. in the Fall, Winter, Spring and Summer) instead of daily or weekly, and is, therefore, probably scholarly. Note also that an article with Notes, Works Cited, Bibliography, and/or other similar References pages included is also an indication of a scholarly, or well-researched, article, the ideas of which are supported by subject related scholarly research

Export to Bibliographic Management Software (EndNote, ProCite, Reference Manager, RefWorks, BibTeX, etc.) »

Click the Cite icon on the right side of the page to open the Citation Format box, then scroll down to your desired format, in this example "MLA"

Highlight, then Copy the entry you have chosen to use in your paper, in this example for your "Works Cited" page, and Paste it into your own document (review a reputable citation guide such as OWL at Purdue to make sure this citation entry is absolutely correctly formatted!)

iv. Retrieve the article citation:

1. Locate and click on the Cite icon in the area to the right of the article full text window to open a Citation Format box above the article full text window
2. Highlight and Copy the article citation labeled with the documentation or citation style you need to use for your assignment or paper, in this example the MLA citation is highlighted
3. Remember to verify and/or revise this retrieved citation for accuracy against a citation guide for the format (MLA or APA, etc.) that you need to use for your particular assignment or paper (Suggested Guide: Purdue University's Online Writing Lab)

iii. Or, at any time, click the Result List link in the upper left corner above the article viewing window, to return to the complete list of articles retrieved for your original search

The Erwin Library Reference staff will be happy to tell you more about these options in person in the library, or by phone at (919) 739-6890 or Ext. 6890 from on-campus. A librarian will also reply to a request made through the Erwin Library homepage using the Ask a Librarian form and its drop-down menu options.
